DETAILED ACTION

Applicant's preliminary amendment filed May 17, 2006 is acknowledged and entered. Claims 1-46 are pending and subject to the following restriction requirement.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-5, 16 and 20, drawn to an EMCR-CoV or homolog.

Group II, claim(s) 6-8, 27, 28, 31 and 41-43, drawn to nucleic acid of EMCR-CoV.

Group III, claim(s) 9, 10, 32, 33, 44 and 45, drawn to antigens of EMCR-CoV.

Group IV, claim(s) 11, 34 and 46, drawn to an antibody that binds EMCR-CoV.

Group V, claim(s) 12 and 29, drawn to a method of identifying EMCR-CoV using an antibody.

Group VI, claim(s) 13 and 14, drawn to a method of identifying EMCR-CoV using nucleic acid.

Group VII, claim(s) 15 and 30, drawn to a method of identifying EMCR-CoV using antigens.

Group VIII, claim(s) 17-19, drawn to a use of a virus for producing a pharmaceutical composition.

Group IX, claim(s) 21 and 22, drawn to a method of treating or preventing EMCR-CoV infection using a virus.

Group X, claim(s) 23, drawn to a viral replicase.

Group XI, claim(s) 24, drawn to a viral spike protein.

Group XII, claim(s) 25, drawn to viral nuclear capsid protein.

Group XIII, claim(s) 26, drawn to a viral nsp3 protein.

Group XIV, claim(s) 26, drawn to a viral envelope protein.

Group XV, claim(s) 35-37, drawn to a use of a nucleic acid for the production of a composition.

Group XVI, claim(s) 38 and 39, drawn to use of an antigen for the production of a composition.

Group XVII, claim(s) 40, drawn to a use of an antibody for the production of a composition.

The inventions listed as Groups I-XVII do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: The special technical feature of the claims is an EMCV-CoV virus or homolog, nucleic acid encoding the virus and antibodies that bind to the virus. Hovanec et al. (Infection and Immunity, 1983, 41(1):426-429, "Hovanec") discloses the detection of antibodies to human CoV 229E (see abstract). The 229E virus is homologous to EMCV-CoV (see specification, top of page 2). Note that the specification does not appear to limit the definition of "homologues thereof", thus Hovanec anticipates the technical feature of the invention. The technical feature fails to make a contribution over the prior art; the claims lack unity of invention.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and the product claims are subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be considered for rejoinder. All claims directed to a nonelected process invention must require all the limitations of an allowable product claim for that process invention to be rejoined.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103 and 112. Until all claims to the elected product are found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowable product claim will not be rejoined. See MPEP § 821.04(b). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution to require the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder. Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.
